

In November,
we remember all those who have died
and we pray for them.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

As the weather grows colder, the mornings get darker and Christmas approaches, it is natural that our thoughts turn to those whom we love who are no longer with us.

Some of us will try not to think about them, as it makes us sad. However this can often make things worse.

It's important that we take time to think about those we have lost, so we can smile when we remember them, instead of feeling sad.

All Saints Day- 1st November, is an opportunity for believers to remember all saints and martyrs, known and unknown, throughout Christian history. Saints are those people whose souls are now in Heaven with God. We celebrated Mass in the Chapel at school on this day.

All Souls Day- 2nd November, is an opportunity for Roman Catholics to remember all those who have passed away and especially to pray for those who have died who are not yet in heaven.

Some souls have died without being fully ready to meet God. We call the place where these souls are Purgatory.

Remembrance Day – 11th November, this is a day to remember the members of the armed forces who have died in the line of duty.

The month of November is a time when we pray for all those who have passed away, in the hope that they will be with God in Heaven.

November - The Month of Holy Souls

During this month you can...

Light a candle for those who have passed away and have time to yourself in the chapel to pray for them.

Every Thursday in November
In the chapel 1.05pm-1:30pm, Father John is going to join us on Thursday 15th November too.

November - The Month of Holy Souls

Three lit yellow candles are positioned on the left side of the image. The candles are of varying heights, with the tallest one in the back and two shorter ones in front. They are all lit, with bright yellow flames and a warm glow emanating from them. The background is dark, making the candles stand out.

This month we are setting up our Rainbows Bereavement Garden in school...

This space is going to be a place of reflection in the centre of our school community...

If you are bereaved and would like to be involved please see Mrs Lutman or Mrs Overend...

A decorative arrangement on the left side of the page featuring a vertical stem with small green leaves and white flowers. Several butterflies are attached to the stem, including a large blue and white one, a smaller blue one, and several white ones. A small white starfish is also visible near the top of the arrangement.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O
Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
